SPONSORS & EXHIBITORS:

Why attend as a delegate?

The 3rd Annual Flight Operations provides you with the perfect opportunity to network with perhaps the key senior personnel within the airlines – those that actually use and fly the aircraft (airline personnel attending include Head Flight Operations, Chief Pilots, Fuel Managers, IT Managers) and also to learn about the key, strategic issues that affect the operating of those aircraft.

Contact our sales team for a current list of airline attendees: Leo Kembery +44 1403 230 307 lk@aircraft-commerce.com, Stephen Keeble +44 1403 230 888 stephen@aircraft-commerce.com.

Key topics under discussion:

- EU ETS – learn how this scheme will work and affect airlines, the IT systems available to support airlines and how to prepare and submit your data.
- Reducing Fuel Consumption: With the current fluctuating fuel prices it is crucial airlines reduce fuel consumption. Seven different techniques are outlined and discussed.
- Paperless cockpit technology: Learn about the latest technology available to assist airlines to achieve a paperless cockpit environment.
- New Engine & Aircraft Products: Hear about the latest products on the market and how they affect airline operations. The A380, MRJ family and CFM LEAP-X programme will be discussed

Exhibition Halls:

Key and innovative software from the world's leading vendors will be available for airlines to demo during the breaks in the presentations. The software systems include: dedicated EU ETS software, EFB and ETL technology, Fuel saving systems. There are a few remaining exhibition opportunities available. For more information contact our sales team: Leo Kembery +44 1403 230 307 lk@aircraft-commerce.com, Stephen Keeble +44 1403 230 888 stephen@aircraft-commerce.com.

Sponsorship Opportunities:

Sponsoring the event allows you to raise your companies profile to a level far above those of the other delegates. It allows you to promote your products to an extremely highly targeted audience of senior airline executives. For more information on what sponsorship packages remain contact our sales team: Leo Kembery +44 1403 230 307 lk@aircraft-commerce.com, Stephen Keeble +44 1403 230 888 stephen@aircraft-commerce.com.
